By Martin Cruz Smith

In the heart of Havana, where the past and present collide, a gripping and evocative thriller unfolds.

Arkady Renko, the iconic Russian detective, finds himself drawn into a dangerous web of intrigue and violence.

When a Russian freighter explodes in Havana Bay, killing all on board, Renko is tasked with investigating the incident.

As he delves deeper into the case, he uncovers a labyrinth of Cold War secrets, espionage, and betrayal.

Renko's investigation leads him through the vibrant streets of Havana, from the bustling Malecón to the opulent Havana Cathedral.

He encounters a cast of unforgettable characters, including a beautiful Cuban doctor, a enigmatic KGB agent, and a ruthless CIA operative.

As the lines between friend and foe blur, Renko must confront his own past and the legacy of the Russian Revolution.

Havana Bay is a masterpiece of suspense and intrigue, a gripping tale that will captivate readers from beginning to end.
